... OF THE HERE

This is Luther . . .

a building of classrooms where important lessons are learned . . .

halls leading to lockers and classes . . .

a gymnasium where both bodies and souls are strengthened . . .

a senior union where upperclassmen study and socialize . . .

a library which affords books for enlightenment and enjoyment . . .

a meditation chapel for private worship . . .

an athletic field where skill and sportsmanship are exhibited . . .

All these and more are the HERE of Luther . . .

. . . AND NOW

There is a time for everything we do . . . a NOW for every moment we live . . .

a NOW to listen to a lecture, sew a dress, or write a term paper . . .
to turn a cartwheel, shoot a basket, or cheer the team to victory . . .

a NOW to meditate upon God, religion and the purpose of life . . .
to sing an anthem, play a march, or perform on the stage . . .

a NOW to announce a coming event or organize a fund-raising project . . .
to elect an officer, plan an assembly, and record school events . . .

Each moment we come to know Luther as something more than mortar and stone . . .

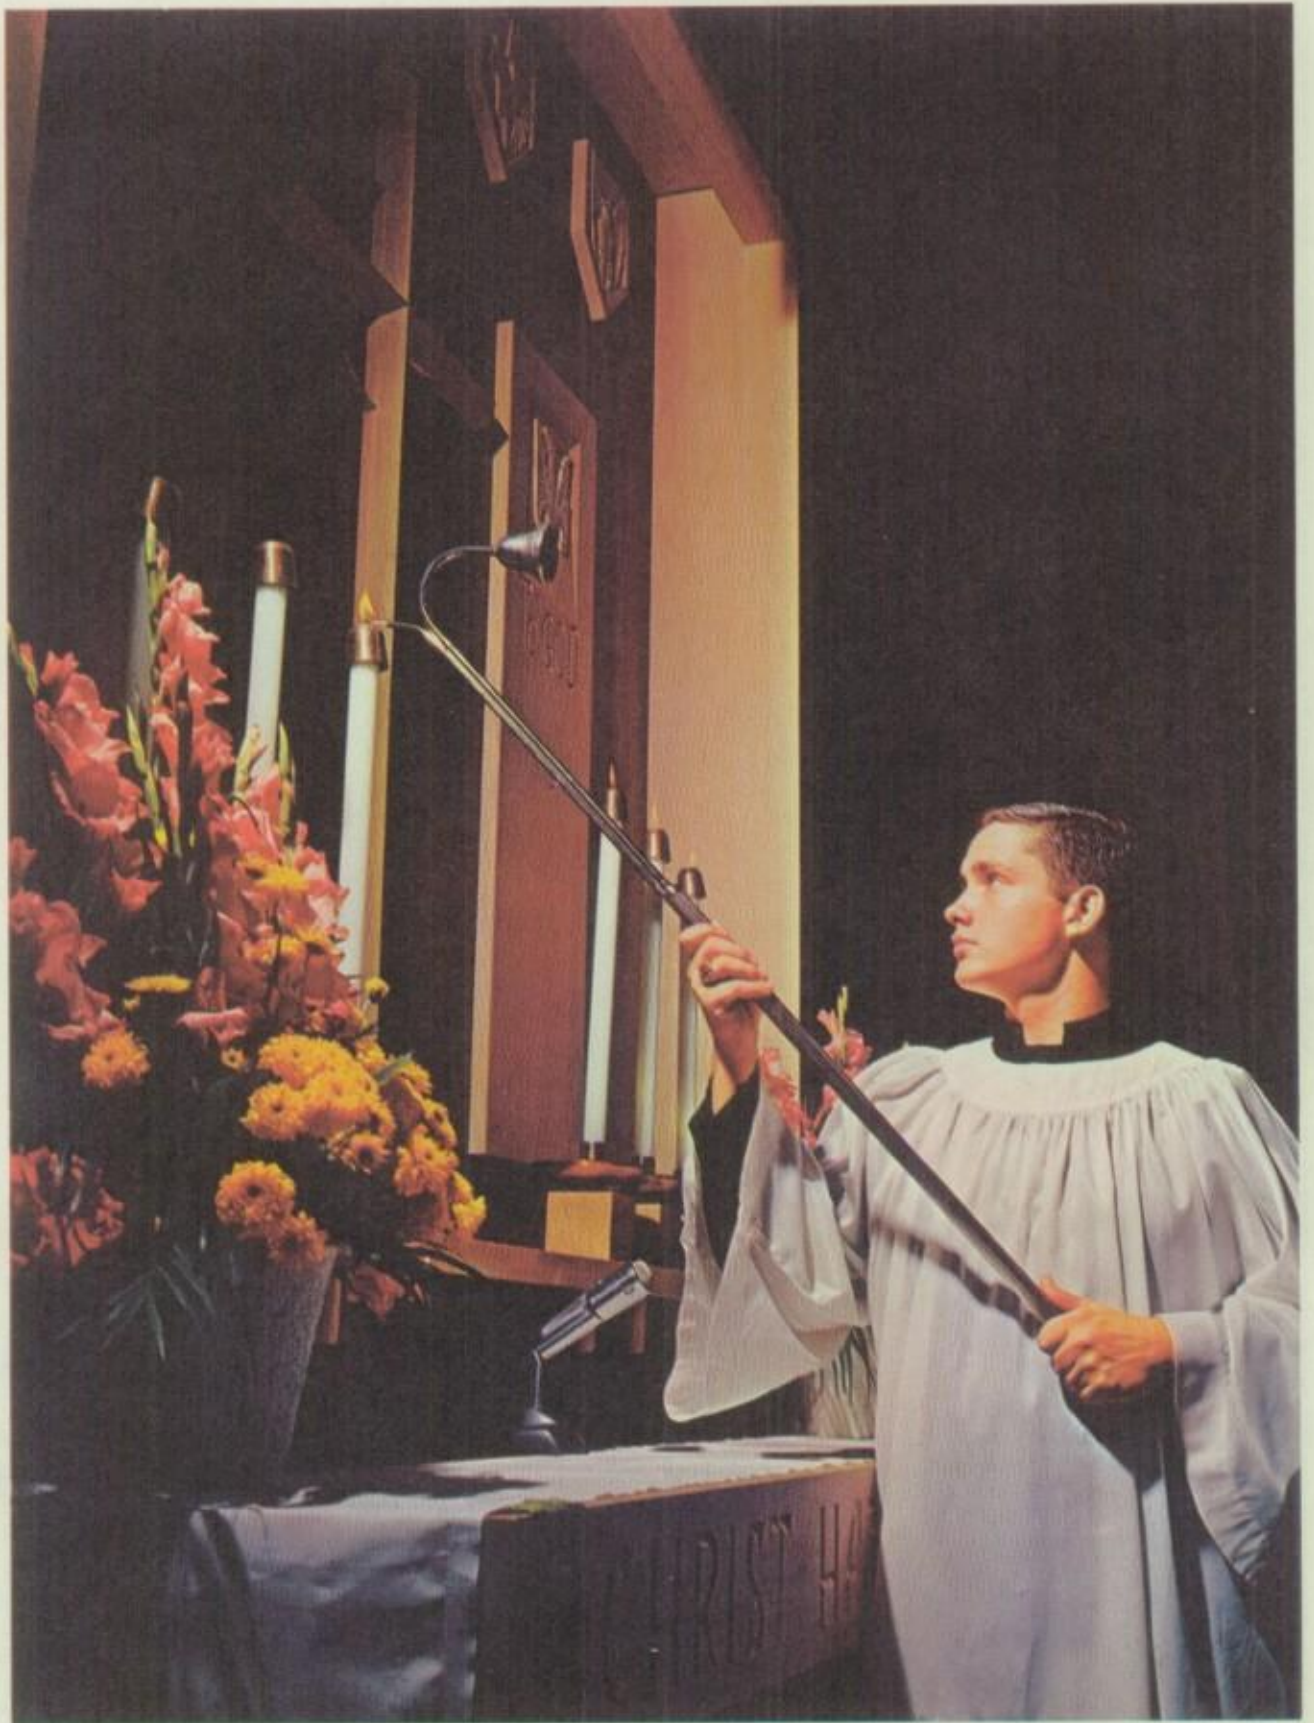

This is Luther . . . of the HERE and NOW.

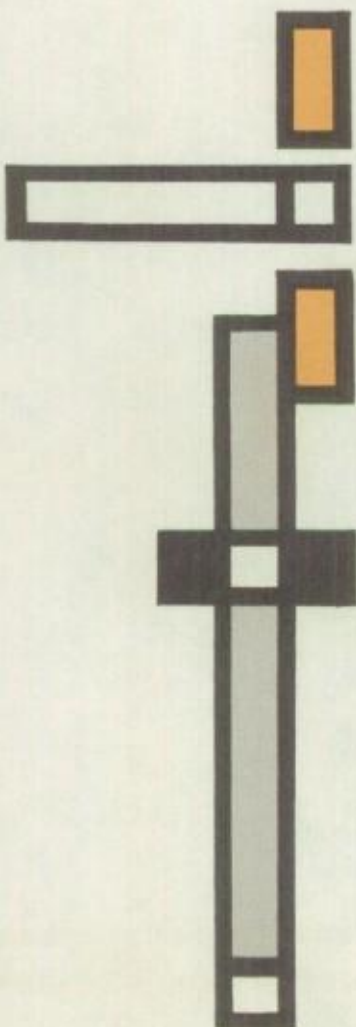

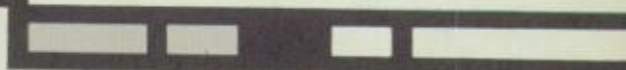

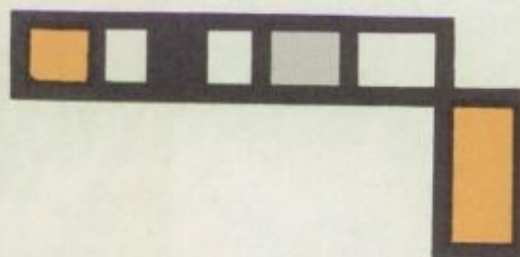

GOD... OF

God is of the HERE and NOW, and has given us the place and time . . .
 a place to belong and a time to grow . . .
 a place to be strengthened and a time to strengthen . . .
 a place to teach and a time to learn . . .
 a place to be enlightened and a time to enlighten . . .
 a place to live and a time to die . . .
 A place and a time, the HERE and NOW!

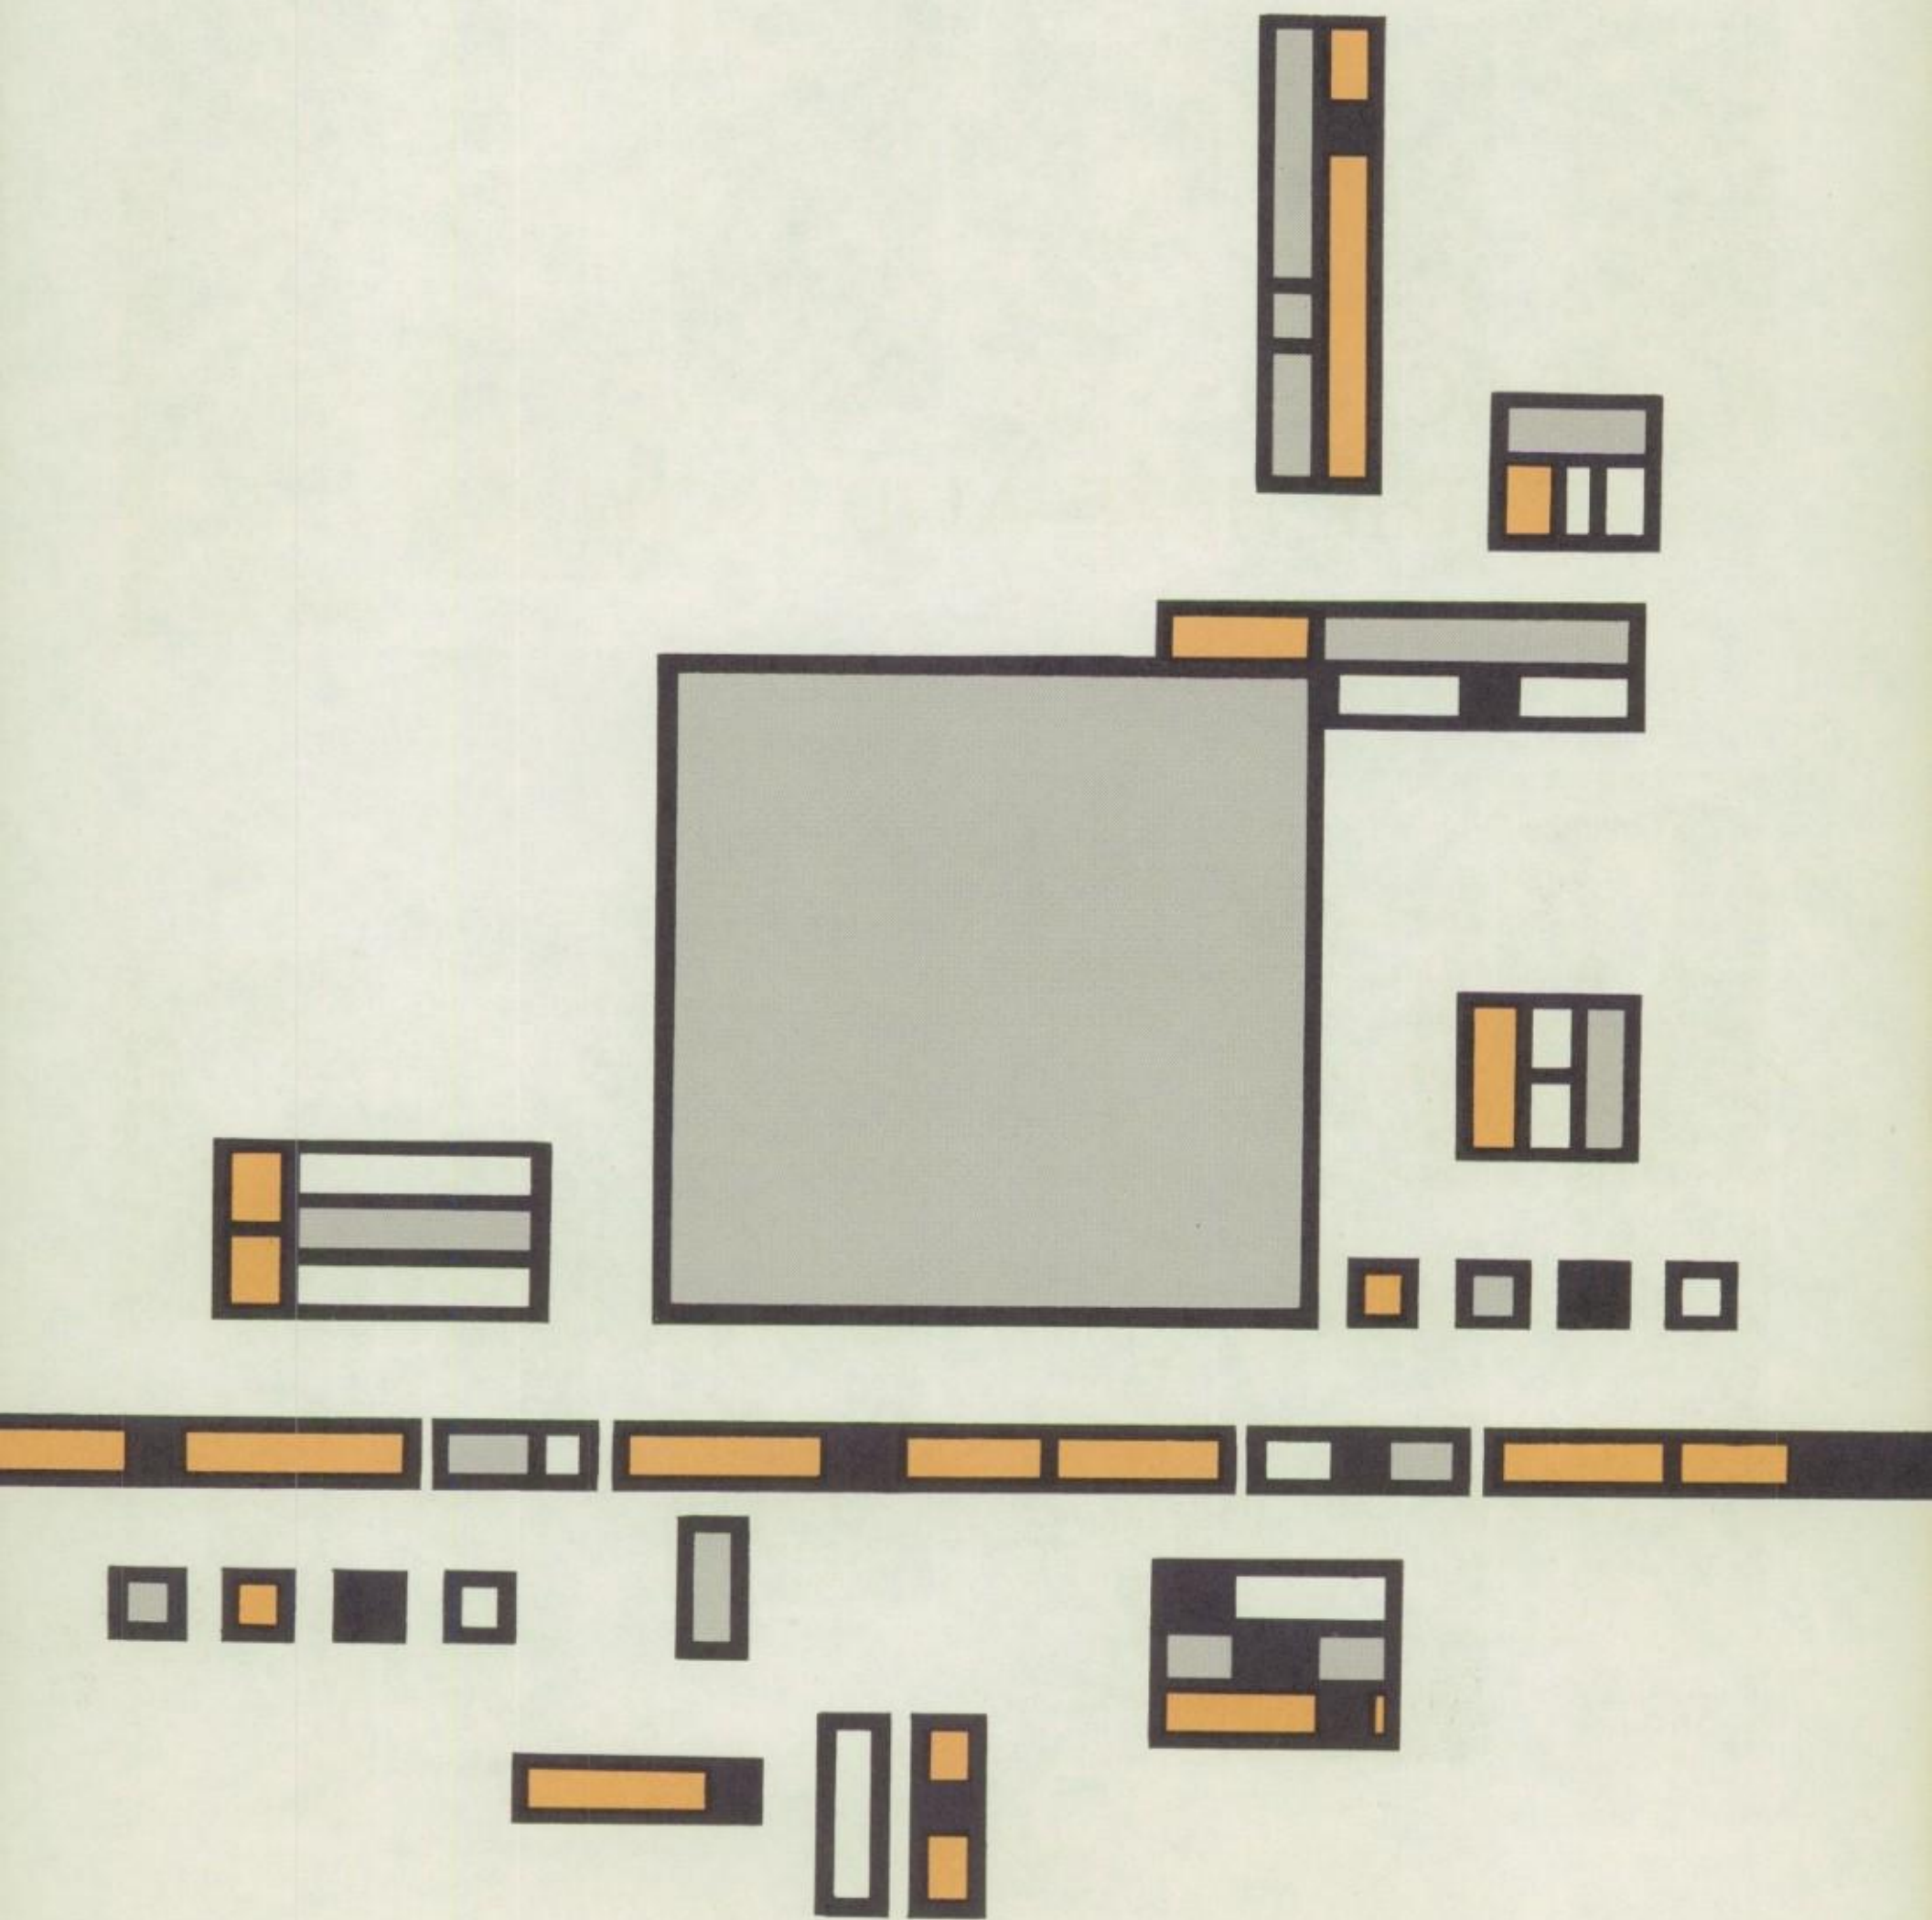

THE HERE AND NOW

TEACHERS . . . OF THE HERE AND NOW

Guiding us through our years at Luther . . .
teaching us what is necessary for a full and useful life . . .
answering the questions of curious minds . . .
taking precious time to listen to our concerns . . .
directing and advising social activities . . .
shaping the thoughts and ideals of young Christian men and women . . .
showing a deep and sincere interest in each of us . . .
We gratefully appreciate your dedication.

LUTHER NORTH COUNCIL: Seated: Mr. C. Lorenz; Mr. K. Vragel; Mr. R.A. Zimmer; Mr. R. Pethes; Dr. Louis A. Menking, Superintendent; Mr. A. Hemler. Standing: Rev. C. Sangers; Mr. R. Snider; Rev. J. Lutz; Mr. J. F. Reiter; Mr. Martin Duensing, Principal; Mr. J. Grosch, Jr.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS FURNISHED

Mr. Karl H. Helmkamp
Dean of Students

Rev. William Beckmann
Registrar
Senior Counselor

Sophomore Counselor

The responsibility for the education of the twelve hundred students of Luther North weighs heavily on the shoulders of the administration and guidance counselors. This year the positions of assistant principal and dean of students, formerly held by one man, were filled by two newcomers to our school. It is the administration which works to achieve a harmonious relationship between students and faculty.

Realizing the importance of preparation now, the several guidance counselors help each student at Luther work out a program suited to his particular needs. Seniors especially seek assistance in planning for college.

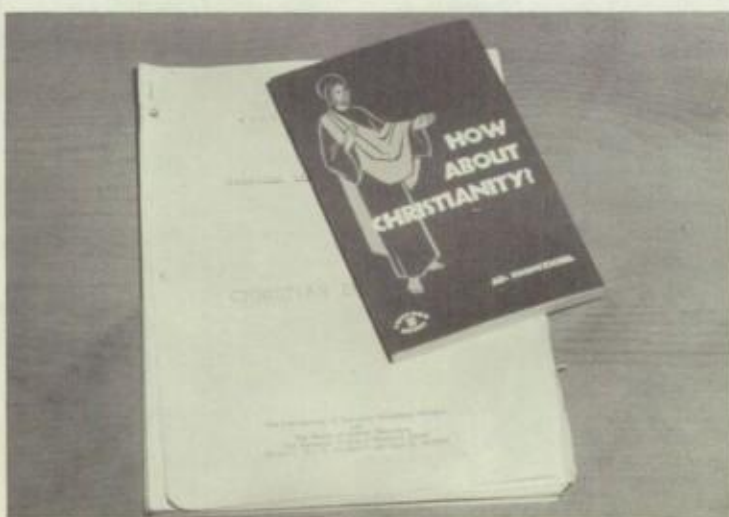

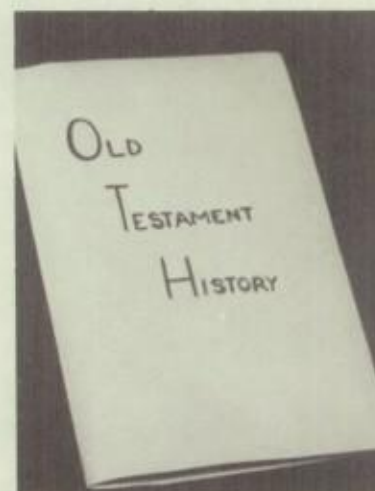

Mr. Harold Meter
Freshman Counselor

Harold H. Meter

Freshmen Steve Stec and Darlene McGrath examine time lines which show the relationship of events in New Testament History.

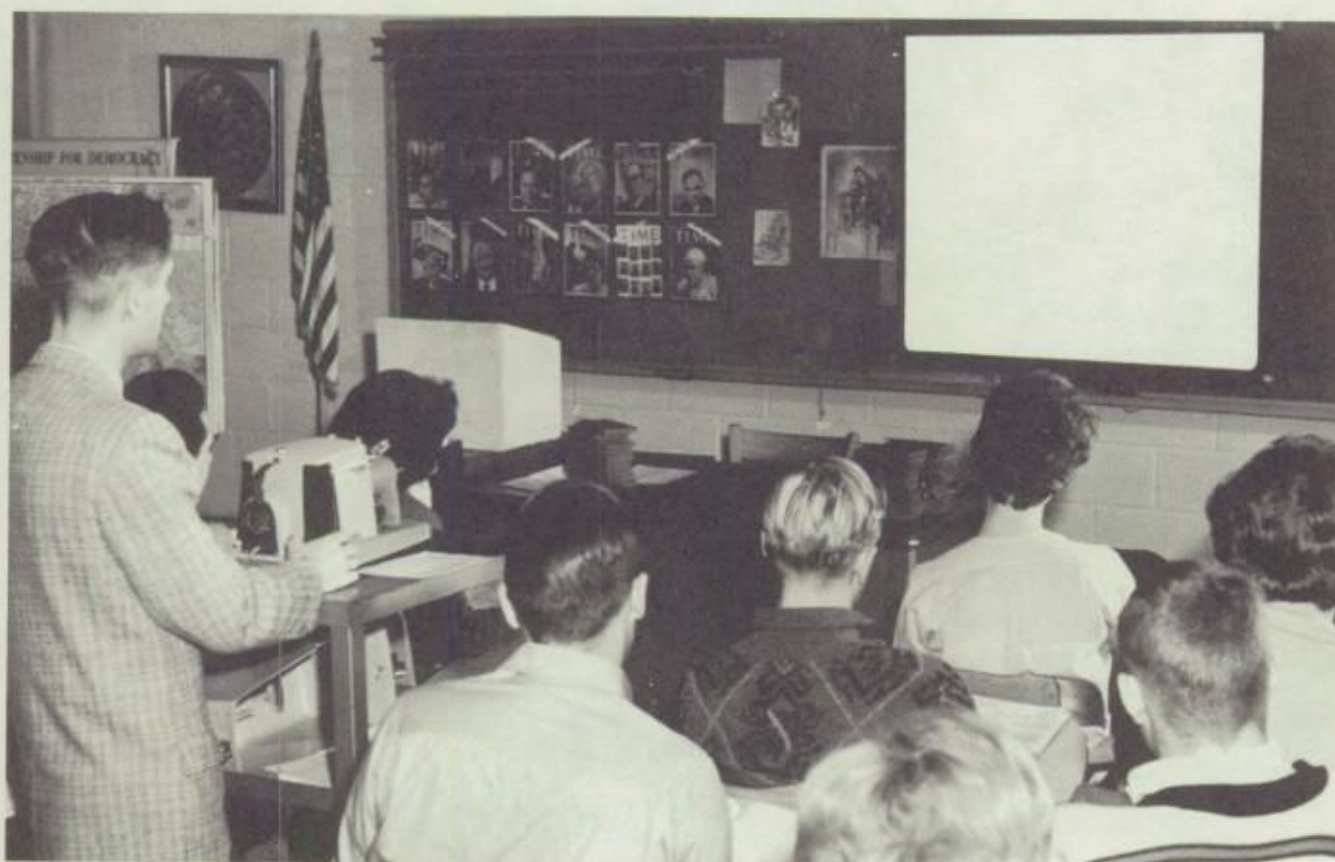

Textbooks and study guides aid students in understanding the Bible and the doctrines of our church.

HISTORY AND DOCTRINE STUDIED

By constructing bulletin board displays, religion classes provide visual incentive in classrooms.

Film strips are used in religion classes to illustrate doctrinal concepts.

To create a unified, understandable idea of the Christian religion, the RELIGION DEPARTMENT of Luther North has introduced a new four-year plan of instruction. According to this plan, students learn the history of the New and Old Testaments, Church History, and Church Doctrine as presented in curriculum study guides. Discussions concerning subjects such as marriage and family life help students understand the role of religion in their lives.

Pastor William Beckmann
Department Chairman

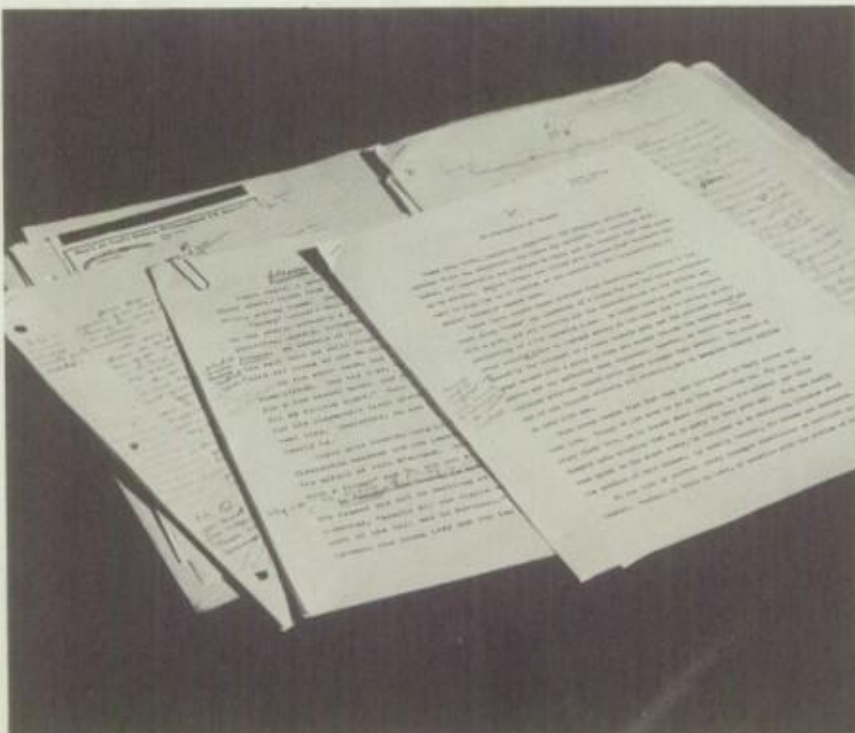

LITERARY HORIZONS

Mr. Donald Offermann
Department Chairman

Sophomore English classes find listening to recordings valuable aids to understanding.

Instruction in the art of writing themes is of major importance in English classes.

Kent Foster demonstrates the finer points of directing in speech class.

EXTENDED

Mike Kuker and Carol Kinneburgh display terms used in English grammar.

The library provides students with a quiet place for study and research.

"Sequential composition" is what the ENGLISH DEPARTMENT calls the form of instruction introduced in our English classes this year. It begins in the freshman year when correct sentence structure is taught. Sophomores continue by writing paragraphs, juniors put the paragraphs into themes, and seniors use these techniques in writing longer themes.

In addition to the required classes in literature and grammar, the English Department offers speech classes. Here students are taught to express themselves orally and to overcome their fears of public speaking.

Information as well as pleasurable reading can be found in the thousands of books in our LIBRARY. Both students and teachers make use of the audio-visual aids, pamphlets, periodicals and college catalogs with which the library is well-supplied. Students interested in library work are asked to work during their free periods to ease the work load on the librarian and also so that they may gain experience.

Mr. Dale Hartmann
Librarian

Diane Streetz spends her free period working in the library.

TECHNICAL PERPLEXITIES

Carol Tongate and Linda Barnes are helped by Mr. Baumann in learning proper dissection technique.

Seniors intent on learning physics listen carefully to a lecture.

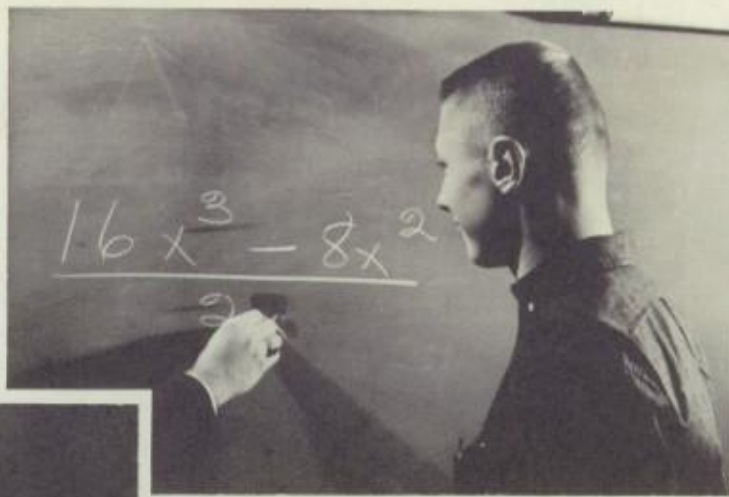

Mr. H. Jack Stoffregen
Department Chairman

With more and more teen-agers interested in science, Luther's SCIENCE DEPARTMENT offers courses for students of varying abilities. To expand the facilities of the laboratories, thousands of dollars have been spent for aquarium pumps, microscopes, cabinets, force tables, oscilloscopes, charts, and other equipment. This year students dissected specimens, made oxygen, studied pulley systems, and learned the importance of asking the question "Why?"

Ken Holland is shown another way to solve algebraic equations.

Mr. Harold Meier
Department Chairman

Mr. Eugene Lischewski gives an example of a line intersecting two perpendicular planes.

For a physicist, accountant, astronomer, or statistician, math is an indispensable tool. This year, as a bridge between the old math and the new, the MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT offered new study materials in the General Math and Honors Math I classes. The wide selection of courses, from elementary algebra to the slide rule, reflects the increasing importance in every day life of math and the logical thinking which it develops.

Dave Hardt, Joanne Tank, and Jim Fleck make practical use of geometric forms by constructing various Christmas decorations.

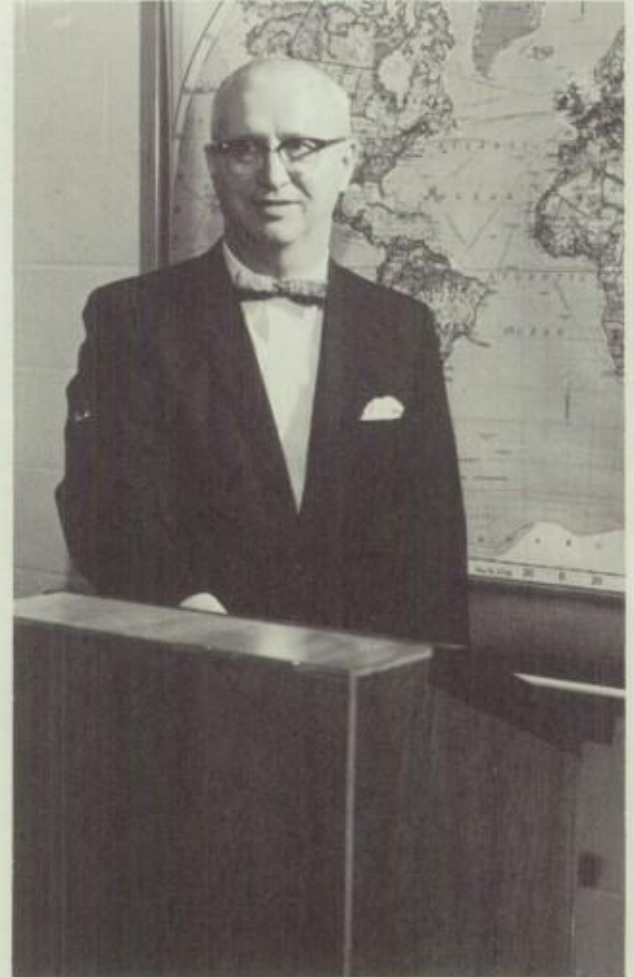

IDEAS OF CIVILIZATION EXPRESSED

The SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT tries to help each student fully appreciate the democratic way of life. Through class debates and discussions, oral reports and movies, students develop critical thinking. The study of Time and Newsweek magazines makes each history student aware of world affairs in our time as well as in the past. By writing book reviews and opinion papers, sociology and American government classes gain a better concept of our society.

Students discuss current events with Mr. Lindemann.

Mr. Gustav Derer
Department Chairman

Lucille Greinke does research for a geography report.

AND COMMUNICATED

Rich Becker, using a vivid poster, explains the culture of Spain.

Third year German students, Stan Piatek and Denise Pokusa, apply their knowledge in translating their German readers.

Miss Elsa Birkner
Department Chairman

Kay Zylstra, Richard Tasker, John Skaritka and Kurt Vragel practice grammatical exercises at the board.

Sprechen Sie Deutsch? Pax. Buenos dias. These phrases are familiar to the foreign language students at Luther. Here, in these classes, students learn to read, write, and speak German, Latin, and Spanish. They also learn to understand and appreciate the cultures of each country.

For the first time in several years, the FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT offered German III to aspiring German students. Great works of German literature were studied, adding to the students' comprehension of the language.

Concerned with making capable homemakers out of each student, the HOME ARTS DEPARTMENT stresses the importance of good grooming, appropriate dress, and proper preparation of meals. This year, at a Ladies' Auxiliary meeting, the department presented a style show for which the girls made and modeled their own clothes.

For boys, the INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT offers an opportunity to make items such as wastebaskets, boats, hammers, go-carts, and cabinets, while learning the use of industrial equipment. The knowledge they gain here will be valuable in jobs in the fields of tool and die making, cabinet making, and carpentry.

Mrs. Grace Nyvall
Department Chairman

Dawn Jannetto begins work on a garment for Clothing.

Mr. Roland Schleusener
Department Chairman

Sue Hedstrom puts last minute touches on a drawing for art class.

In Industrial Arts, students learn many skills useful for their future vocations.

TALENTS DEVELOPED

Senior Marie Templin uses her shorthand skills to take a letter at 100 words a minute.

Mrs. Carol Thorson
Department Chairman

The A Cappella choir sings for chapel services.

Music and art classes combine to form the FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT. The choirs and band provide musical entertainment and spiritual enlightenment in chapel, at concerts, and on tours. Art classes give creative students an outlet to their abilities through clay modeling, mosaics, and paintings.

Jobs in the business world are open to many of the students who have completed the courses offered by the COMMERCIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT. This year ten new manual typewriters and three electric ones have been added to the wide variety of office machines already in use.

Mr. Richard Schroeder
Department Chairman

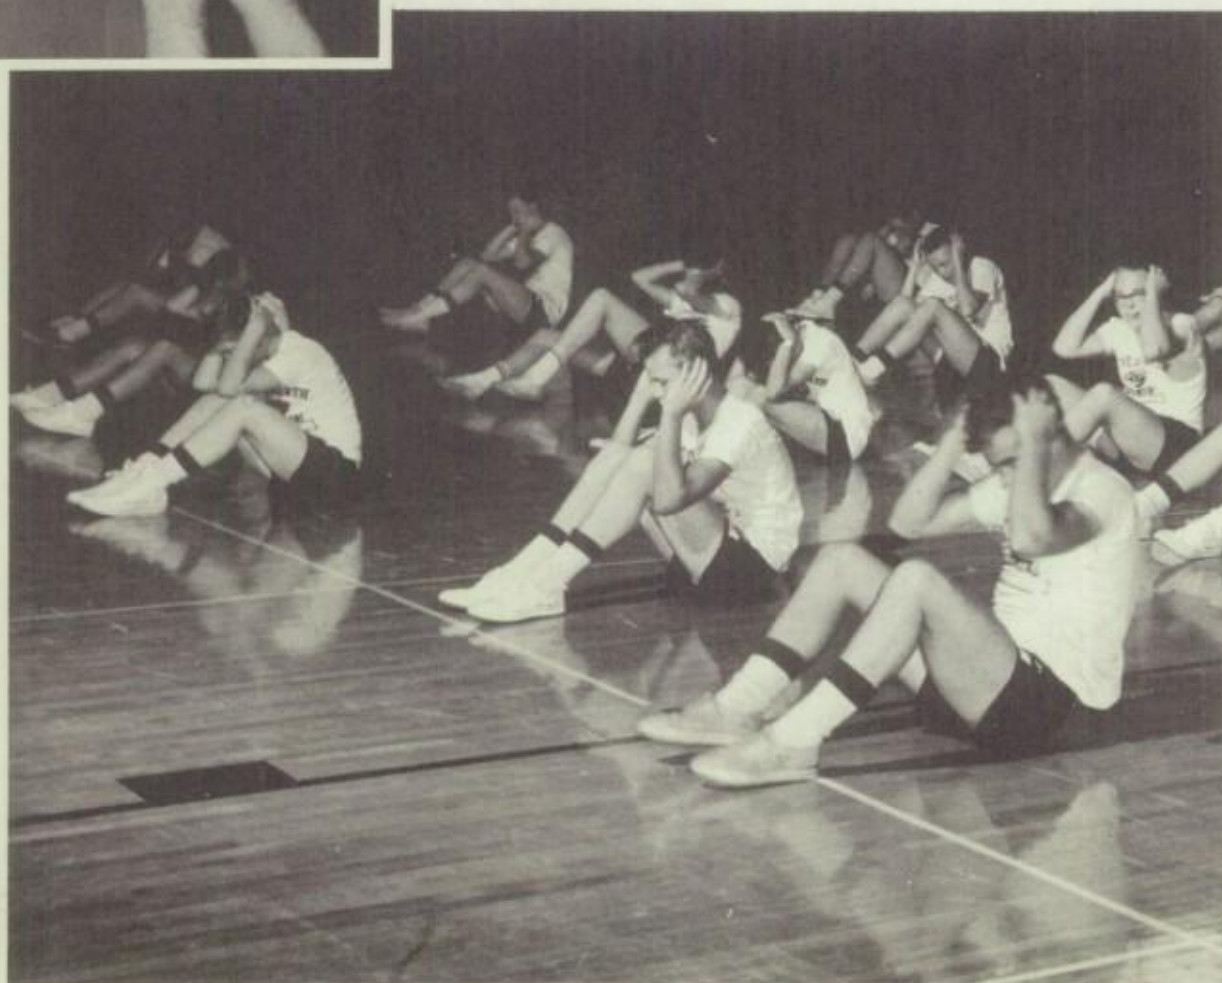

PHYSICAL DEXTERITY DEVELOPED

Mr. Arthur Blecke
Department Chairman

Bill Hafeman, Kathy O'Donnell, Karen Reinhart, and Glen Heidorn take quarterly physical fitness tests.

This year two new tennis courts were added to the facilities of the PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT. These courts are a part of the department's program of developing a high degree of physical fitness in every Lutherite. This includes developing interests and skills in many varied physical activities, and proper physical, mental, and emotional growth.

Before, during, and after school, the non-teaching staff of Luther North works hard to see that the school runs smoothly. Fixing a locker, shoveling snow, or helping out at school functions, the maintenance staff keeps the school clean, neat, and in repair. Recording attendance and grades or the finances of the school is the duty of the office staff. Food, that subject so dear to every student's heart, is prepared by the kitchen staff for both the regular school lunches and the many banquets given during the year.

Thinking back four years, we can still remember our first day at LHN as bewildered freshmen, afraid of the future. As the years progressed, we were given more responsibilities until finally in our senior year we monitored study halls, became gym leaders, and directed the Luther Student Life program.

Now we are ready to step beyond our high school days into the adult world. Some of us will continue our education, while others will immediately enter business and industry. No matter what we do or where we go, Luther North will always remain a part of us for here we have grown physically, mentally, and spiritually. Now, as we go forward, we are thankful for all of the dedicated faculty who have prepared us for this moment.

JUNIORS FOUND NEW

Bonnie Myers
Treasurer

Several memorable events highlight this year for the junior class. Weeks of hard work paid off early this fall when their float won first prize in the Homecoming Parade for the third consecutive year. St. Louis was visited in the spring, and finally, after almost a year of preparation, the class of '65 presented the Junior-Senior Banquet. Now the juniors are ready to go on to their final year here at Luther, having gained through experience a responsible attitude toward their role in student life.

SOPHOMORES

Janet Krock,
Treasurer

For the sophomores, this year was one of increased participation in school life. Electing class officers, sponsoring parties, and choosing a Frosh-Soph basketball queen are only the highlights of the year's activities. New friendships were made and old ones strengthened as the sophomores worked together and assumed new responsibilities. They realized that here at Luther they are now acquiring knowledge and experience for use in later life.

FRESHMEN TOUCH

This year was a period of transition for the freshmen students. To help them get settled, parties such as the Get-Acquainted Party and the Big-Little Sister Party were sponsored. The election of class officers and Student Council members gave them a hand in student government, so that now they have become a functioning part of the student body here at Luther North.

Freshmen express school spirit at Homecoming.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL: Standing: Miss Andrea Schmidt, Advisor; J. Lempuhl; De. Reiner; J. Burkhardt; D. Guzzetta; R. Treptow; T. Reiner; D. Webber; T. Zweifel; H. Zelke; Mr. K. Helmkamp. Seated: L. Meyer; D. Jannetto; K. Reinhardt; S. Travis; K. Korthals; J. Waltz; M. Max; A. Bassler; S. Krause.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPED THRU

Christmas door decorations, locker checks, Homecoming weekend, the Activity Value and Civic Letter Systems, and the Spring Fling are all the responsibility of the Student Council. Made up of representatives from all four classes, this group forms the base of student government and acts as a bridge between students and faculty. This fall our school was also host for a Student Council Convention with delegates from Lutheran high schools all over the country.

Student Council members Helen Zelke and Joy Waltz organize the Student Activity Cards.

Lili Meyer and Rick Treptow arranged decorations for the Student Council all-school party, "Hillbilly Hub-bub."

The Luther Student Life Committee meets every Tuesday afternoon to guide and counsel fellow students who violate school rules. Committee members include two seniors apiece from the Student Council, Senior Class Council, and the senior class at large. Despite difficulties in obtaining whole-hearted student support, this program gives students an opportunity to exercise responsible concern for the behavior of their classmates.

Miche Girardin, president of Luther Student Life, collects violation slips to be reviewed by the committee.

LONG HOURS SPENT ON

Pat Koenig, Editor; Mr. J. Zehnder, Advisor; Paul Maegdlin, Ass't. Editor.

The Log Staff spent frustrating weeks during the summer and early fall trying to decide on a theme and a cover. With those tasks out of the way, deadlines came too fast and too often. The photo staff took, cropped, and identified pictures. Staff members obtained interviews, wrote and rewrote copy, and changed layouts at the last minute. Finally the student body received the completed 1964 Log, and criticized and praised our record of the school year.

A tremendous amount of work is involved in producing each issue of the Blue & Gold. This year the paper made some changes, cutting down on fixed features and emphasizing articles on teachers. The Blue & Gold offers valuable experience to writers and reporters and also serves as a public relations communication through such projects as the mailing of one issue to every family in the Northern Illinois District.

Throughout the year, in keeping with their name, the twenty members of the Girls Service Club help the school by serving at banquets and sponsoring intramural volleyball, parties and bake sales. They also support a South Vietnamese child and collect for the American Cancer Society.

Checking coats at school functions, sponsoring the Candy Drive, ushering at chapel services, and selling peanuts on Kiwanis Kid's Day are a few of the services the twenty-one boys of the Key Club render to LHN and the community. The highlight of the year took place on April 2 when the club presented a Hootenanny featuring the Chad Mitchell Trio.

The junior office clerks are composed of junior girls who have good scholastic and attendance records. These girls give up their daily study period to assist at the switch-board, file records, and take care of the main counter in the office.

The hallguards give Lutherites another chance to serve their school. During their study periods students collect absence slips, deliver notes from the office, and keep order in the halls.

SUPPLEMENTED

"Bigger than ever before" describes the 1963-64 library staff. The buying, processing and circulation of books, pamphlets and magazines are sped along through this group's work. They also sponsor the Teenage and Campus Book Clubs, and this year for the first time, the Paperback Book Exchange which made a variety of paperbacks available to students at no extra cost.

Dennis Jacobson, working in the library, finds information in the pamphlet file.

SCHOLASTIC INTERESTS

During a Biology Club meeting Lynn Vana works on a tropical plant.

Bonnie Braunig prepares her sketch for a mural on the cafeteria wall.

Meeting twice monthly, the members of the Art Club develop their artistic talents. At meetings, they divide into smaller interest groups such as drawing and painting, sketching, ceramics or sculpturing. The Art Club designed colorful program covers and eye-catching posters for various school activities, and this year sold Christmas decorations created by its members.

A special interest in biology qualifies any student for membership in the Biology Club. Hard work has gone into improving the terrarium in Room 100, and members have also taken field trips to such places as the Medical History Museum.

The Spanish Club attempts to strengthen the fellowship of interested students with Spanish-speaking peoples. The club's activities this year included visits to a Spanish restaurant and a Spanish church, and the building of a homecoming parade entry -- a football player wearing a Mexican sombrero.

Signe Grant applies her stage make-up before her performance in "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Dramatically-inclined students comprise one of Luther's largest organizations. Thespians may gain valuable experience in the areas of make-up, props, sound, lighting or acting. This year two major plays were produced and a one-act play provided entertainment at the Speech and Drama Banquet.

Students who work for one hundred hours may become National Thespians. They are initiated at the end of the year and are received into membership at the annual banquet.

The Religion Activities Club strives to put Christianity into action. These students helped the less fortunate through activities such as the Thanksgiving food drive and a clothing drive for hurricane victims in the West Indies. Highlighting this year, the annual RAC mission banquet developed the theme, "God's Light on Japan".

INTEREST IN HOBBIES

Dragin' Diplomat Bob Waldron gives assistance to a stranded motorist.

The Equestrians brings together juniors and seniors who love horses and riding. At meetings demonstrations or movies about horsemanship are presented, and the club has also sponsored trips to horse shows and polo games.

The boys of the Dragin' Diplomats, Luther's newly organized car club, began the year with an entry of 15 cars in the Homecoming Parade. In December, they sponsored an all-school party, "Diplomat's Diversion". Each club member also pledges to offer assistance to motorists in distress.

MUSICAL TALENTS

Junior and senior students with good voices and a desire to sing make up the A Cappella Choir. In addition to singing at Wednesday chapel services, assemblies and concerts, this outstanding group has performed in the Chicago area, Elk Grove, Milwaukee, Rock Island, and Peoria.

The Luther Singers, a group of seniors selected from the A Cappella Choir, also performs at school programs. They meet twice a week and practice various styles of music—madrigals, Hawaiian songs, and religious music.

Hard work and hours of practice strengthened the unison and harmony of the Girl's Choir. During the year this choral group participated in the three concerts given in our gym and also in Wednesday morning chapel services.

A new group, The Girl's Ensemble, was added to Luther's already well-rounded Music Department this year. Composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls, the ensemble gives more variety to concerts and chapel services.

With the beginning of the second semester, the Freshman Choir began its work. Freshman boys and girls concentrated on the fundamentals of good singing, and toward the year's end, they made frequent appearances in concerts and chapel.

In the Beginner's Band, students learned the basics of instrumental music. They worked hard to improve themselves so that they might become members of the Concert Band.

STYLE ADDED TO ACTION

Performing in the Homecoming Parade was part of this year's activities for the Marching Band.

This year Luther's Marching Band exhibited their school spirit by performing at Homecoming and many football games. Their uniforms and precision marching added a dash to this year's events. Along with this, their arrangement, which were excellent examples of martial music, did much to cheer our team to victory.

The concert band has been very active this year, performing in the clean-up week parade, Northwestern Band Day, a joint concert with the choirs and the activities of Homecoming weekend. They also toured neighboring grade schools with the sophomore choir and played at basketball games. The band exposes students to different styles of music and also helps create school spirit.

The Majorettes enthusiastically began the year by leading the Homecoming Parade, and continued by participating in Band Day at Northwestern and half-time at three basketball games. Long hours of lessons and practice have greatly improved their skill, to the credit of LHN.

CATS PROVE

Freezing on a cold bench . . . sweating in the heat of a game . . . excitement when told to play . . . intense desire to win . . . resignation at the necessity of exercises . . . fatigue in the locker room after a game are a few of the feelings of a varsity football player. A great team effort brought us four wins and second place in the Private School League. Ralph Swearingen, Bob Zirzow, and Jim Fitzpatrick were chosen for the all-league first team. With a total of 1420 yards gained, our team gave the spectators a season of exciting games.

The referees give pre-game instructions to co-captains, Jim Fitzpatrick and Larry Wagner.

TEAMS BROUGHT

Under the able coaching of Mr. Seevers and Mr. Berning, the boys learned the fundamentals of blocking and tackling, and improved themselves steadily to win in the P.S.L., being undefeated in league play. It was a team effort all the way, but Wayne Peterson constantly ran with extra drive and was elected Most Valuable Player by his teammates.

There are only three words which can describe the workouts of the Cross-Country Teams: running, running, and running. The boys raced around the school track for three mile stretches to build up their endurance and stamina. They ran around Portage Park for miles to become accustomed to the rough terrain present in league meets.

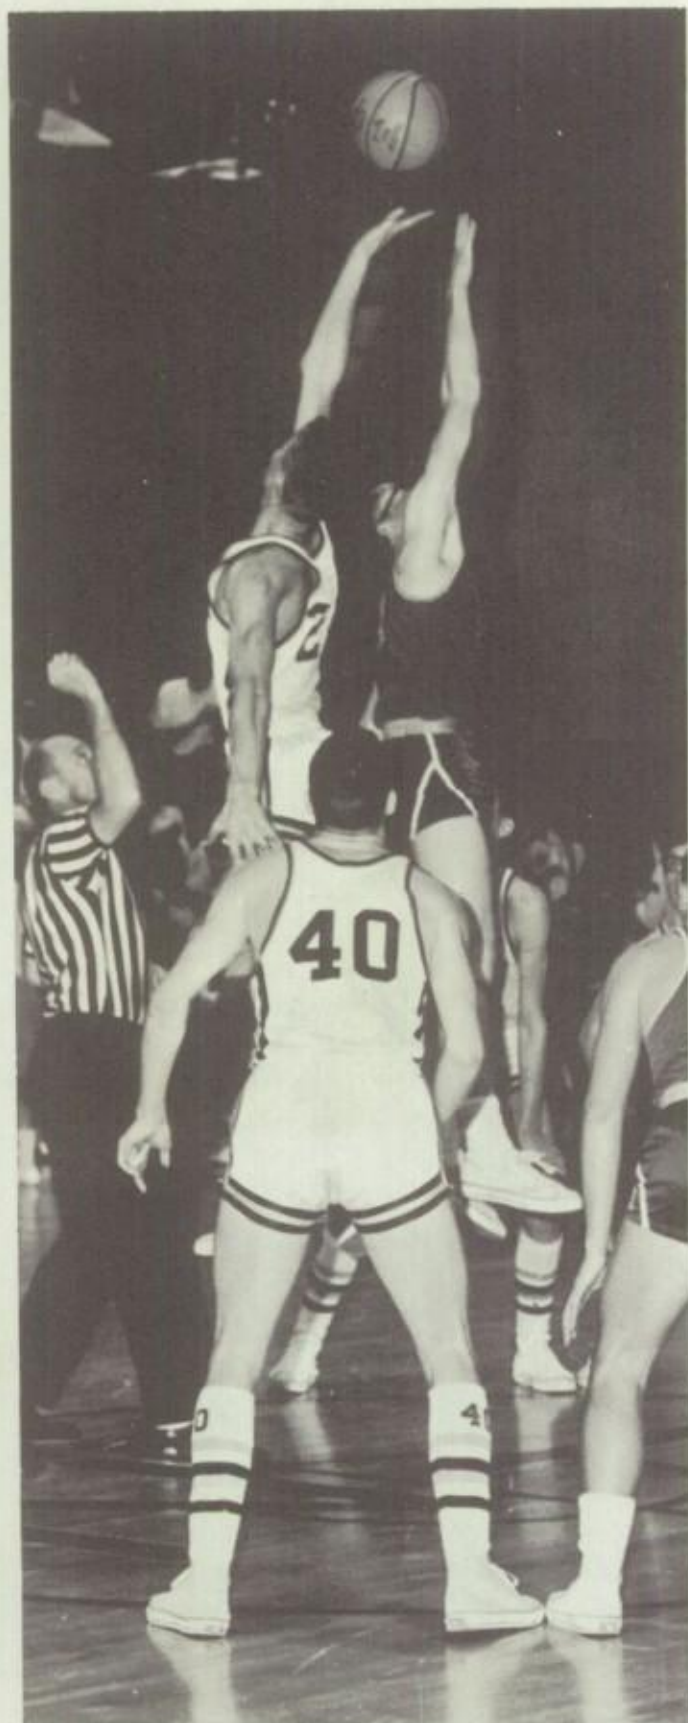

Led by Captain Bill Schmidt and under the superior coaching of Mr. Baumann, the boys won half of their six league meets and took third place in the P.S.L. tournament. The team's top runner, Dave Sadler, broke all but one of the existing course records. Other outstanding runners were Bob Hurley and Rich Kraft.

RECORD-BREAKING WILDCATS

Dietmar Faust attempts to shoot as Dick Briars rushes to assist him.

A record of eleven wins and three loses was the pace set by the Varsity Basketball team in this years competition. Taking a second place slot in the league and third place in the P. S. L. tournament, they demonstrated the effectiveness of team effort. Many records were shattered by outstanding playing. Jack Beutlich set a new league rebound record of 295. Dick Briars, captain and most valuable player, broke the scoring record for the second consecutive year with 574 points. Our honors class team scored a season of action-packed games for students and parents alike.

TEAM EFFORTS

Luther's program for training its future basketball stars begins with the freshman squad. This group of freshman boys played a good season under Mr. W. Baumann. These boys learned the basic fundamentals of basketball which would enable them to proceed with basketball at L.H.N.

Sophomores and the more advanced freshmen were eligible to play on the Frosh-Soph team, under stiffer competition and advanced training. These two teams enable under classmen to develop their skills and attitudes and to participate in an active sport.

UNDEFEATABLE

Track is the sport of the individual, a "man against himself." Vigorous exercise at after school practice — calisthenics, general running, wind sprints — built up the endurance and stamina of the 29 boys of this year's varsity track team. Led by captain Don Elitt, Dave Sadler and Ted Kautz, the boys competed in fourteen meets for top honors in the Private School League.

Using every ounce of his strength, Bill Nelson, pole vaults during practice.

Coach Everly gives a pep-talk to the members of the mile relay team: Don Elitt, Bill Schmidt, Dan Allen, and Ted Kautz.

The strenuous rigors of practice dominate the afternoons of the 26 boys of the Frosh-Soph track team. This training ground for varsity track provided diligent work and the satisfaction of participation in a few meets.

Ted Kautz practices the running broad jump for competition in the next track meet.

SPRING SPORTS

The rules of proper form and co-ordination are demonstrated by Marty Gannon.

Luther North's golf team travelled to White Pines Country Club for practices and meets during the 1964 season. Coached by Mr. Roush and Mr. Borcharding, the five-member squad competed in seven nine-hole games. In the P.S.L. tournament each boy played as an individual and exhibited skills which could provide him enjoyment in the years to come.

To the distress of his opponent, Paul Moe returns a serve with a forward overhand stroke.

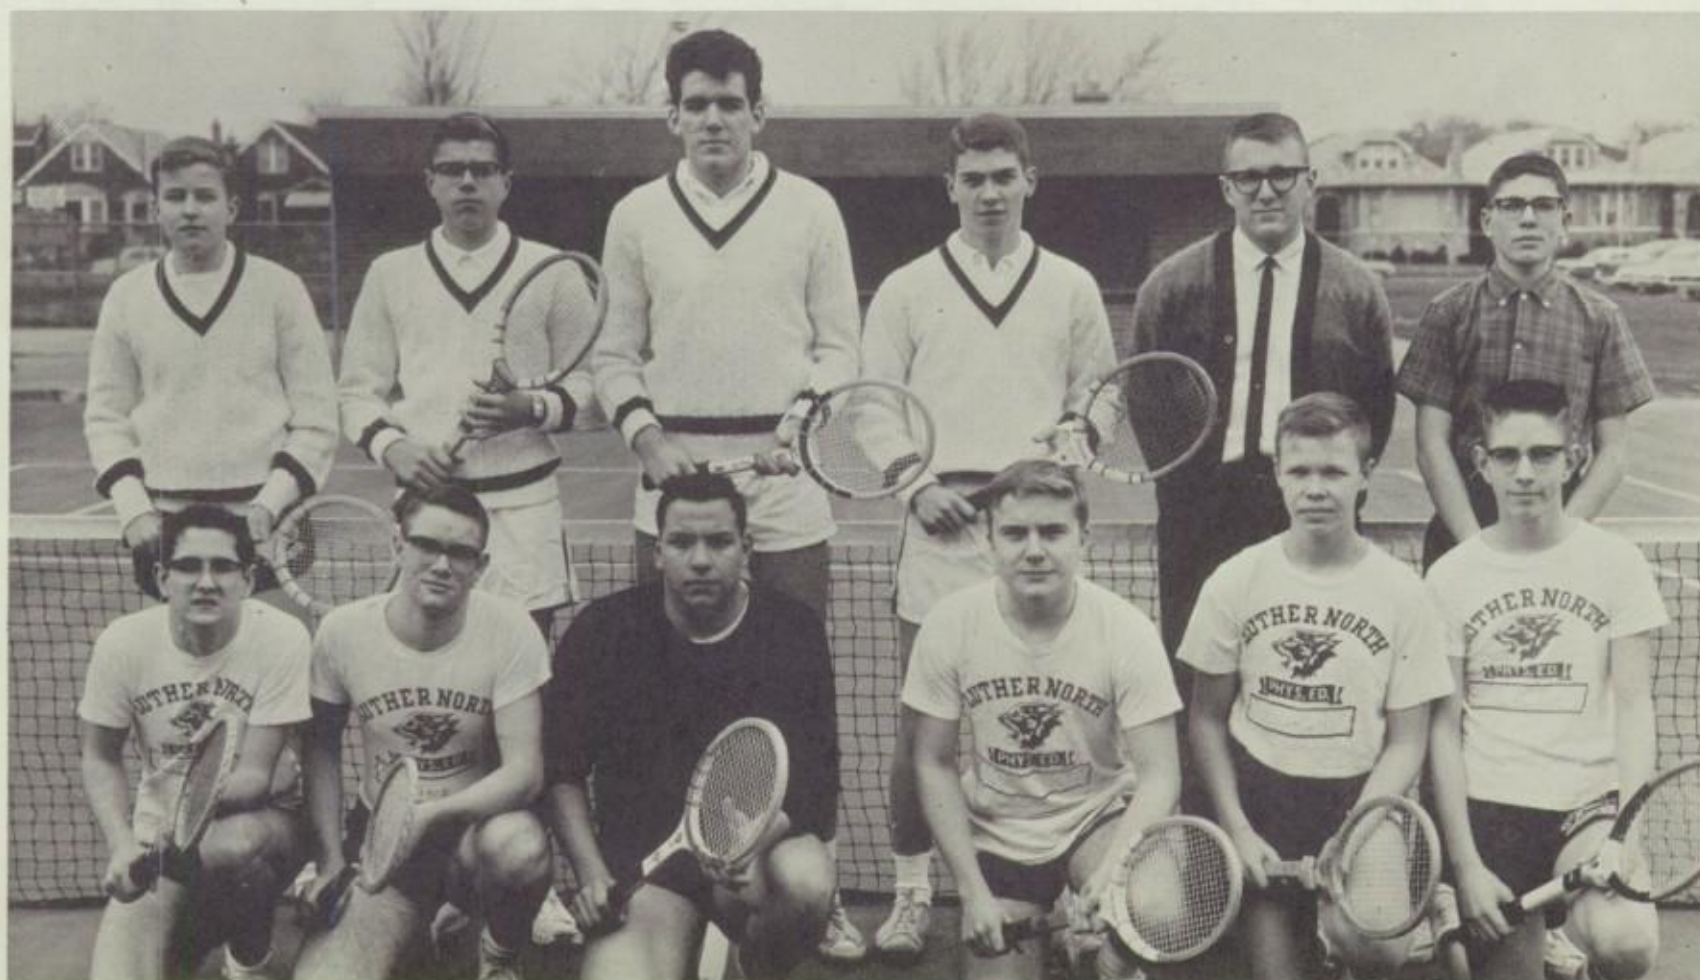

Returning to the varsity tennis team this year, Captain Paul Moe, Lance Novak, and Ed Mueller led the squad in the new seven-team red division of the Private School League. A new non-competitive, Frosh-Soph team, which practiced for the first time this year and the recently constructed tennis courts next to the gym, combined to give tennis a new importance at Luther.

David Young returns his opponent's net serve.

WILDCATS PURSUED

Practices at Portage Park improved and strengthened the Baseball Team's already outstanding pitching and catching. Several returning lettermen used their experience and gave advice to the team. Captain Russ Mueller, a member of the 1963 All League team, is in his fourth year of baseball. Other lettermen are, Roy Harris, leading pitcher and outfielder; Ralph Swearingen, Jim Grabowy, Dick Briars, Larry Wagner, and Russ Meyer. Two sophomores, Jim Nelson, and Larry Henning, and a freshman, Ken Hanneman, were impressive newcomers.

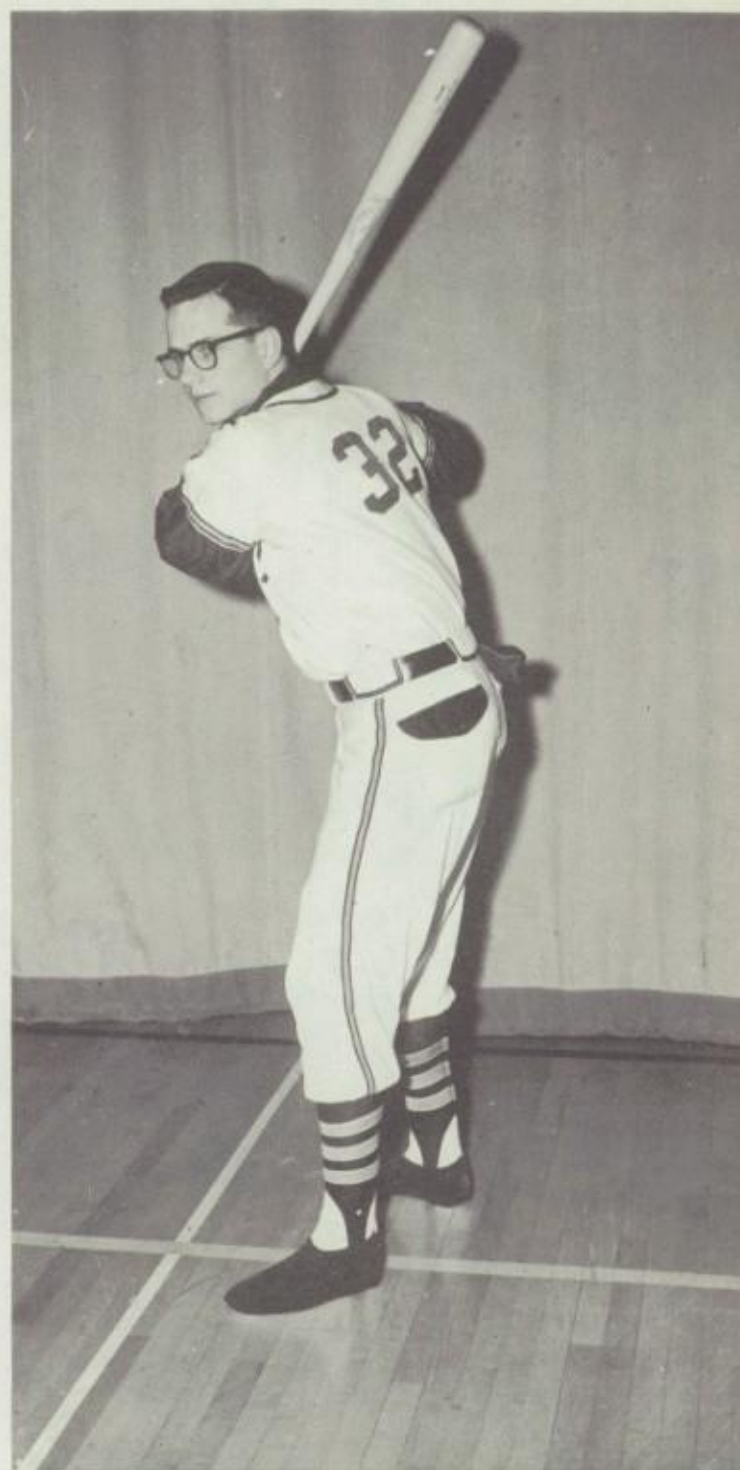

Jim Grabowy realizes the importance of good equipment for good playing.

ATHLETIC

Marilyn Grundgeiger competes in the baseball throw at the Girls Intramural Track Meet.

All girls who enjoy playing volleyball may join Intramurals sponsored by the GSC. The games, held every Thursday night during March, give the girls a chance to work as homeroom teams. When the girls are not playing volleyball they may develop their gymnastic skills on the equipment.

SPIRIT RENDERED

Consisting of those boys who have lettered in any varsity sport, the Lettermen's Club performed needed services at Luther basketball events. Club members could be seen at every one of these events selling popcorn, hot dogs, soft drinks, and ice cream. Attending every home game, rooting for our team, and demonstrating active school spirit, are but a few of the many functions of the Pep Club. Any Lutherite who likes to cheer at basketball games and is proud of his team is eligible for membership in the club.

Dear
Oz,
You're a nut.
I hope you pass
math. But had fun
this year and will always remember you—and remember you're ugly and your mother dresses you funny. Send all my love to Mr. Horton.
It's been a blast! Good luck.
Love
Yours
(alias Nundy)

Dear OZ! It's been pure mourning you. We've had a blast this year (especially in history). Good luck in your OZ in Good luck -

do. We've had all that you and I hope you don't forget it, I'm sure you won't.
Hope to see you here next year. Best wishes and God Bless have Dibs

Dear "OZ" -
It's been a lot of fun on the bus
stop and in room
Hope to see you in some of my classes and at the bus - stop next year
